
EU Commission: European Disability and Parking Card valid in all States. Jourova, protecting people's rights

Guaranteeing the right to free movement to people with disabilities. This is the main purpose of a legislative proposal, presented by the European Commission in Brussels today. Such legislation is intended to ensure that people with disabilities can, “on an equal basis, access special conditions, preferential treatment, and parking rights when visiting another Member State”.

