(London) To mark the tenth anniversary of Pope Benedict XVI's visit to the UK, the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales is releasing 23 key speeches given by the Holy Father, Queen Elizabeth II and other religious leader on some of the most popular podcast hosting platforms. The first speech - the welcome address given by Queen Elizabeth II at Holyrood Palace in Edinburgh, where Pope Benedict XVI began his visit - will be played tomorrow, Wednesday, 16 September, at 11.40. Then the Holy Father's dialogue with Chief Rabbi Jonathan Sacks and Dr Khaled Assam, in charge of a school for interfaith dialogue founded by Prince Charles in London, will be played the next day, on 17 September, at 11.30. The words spoken by the Holy Father at Westminster Hall, at the heart of the British Parliament, in the presence of Margaret Thatcher, Tony Blair, John Major, Gordon Brown and the then Prime Minister David Cameron, will be available on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Castos and SoundCloud at 17.30. Pope Benedict was loudly applauded by MPs at the time. Also on Thursday, 17 September, there will be the release of the texts and canticles of Evensong at Westminster Abbey, the mother church of Anglicanism, which was also attended by Archbishops Rowan Williams of Canterbury and John Sentamu of York. Other events include the Mass for the Beatification of John Henry Newman, and the release of unseen photos of the Papal Visit.
